Here is an extract from one of the papers alluded to A telegram dated London 26th July says :- There is a lively row in London over the facts discovered about Imuris mines in Socorro county, N The money paid for the property was $620.0 0. of which $337,000 was paid in cash. The chairman of the board of directors. James Whittall, one of the wellknown solid London merchants, paid the wines svisit before the purchase. He was accompanied by a Welsh mining expert, made an enthusiastic report. A year ago the man who sold the mine to the English company had a row in New Mexico with partner, and was shot dead. A couple of months ago gentlemen interested in the ompany sent an American Womble of San Francisco, to examine the property and report. Womble returned five weeks ago. He declared the ore on the dumps was of good quality at the surface, but was rubbish underneath. May an official circular declared ere to value of $2,000.000 was in aight! reliable expert mays the ore in might is not worth $50,000.

EG PUN HING W. HO LAI RHI. In this case the plaintiff sought (1) to be declared entitled as co-tenant with the defendant to an undivided half share and interest in Marine lote 34s, 168; 169, 46 and 17, and Inland lot 871; have an account of the rents and of the said lots received by Ho Tsun Shai deceased and by the defendant under his will from 4th April 1871 to the date of the action; (3) to payment of any balance that might be found due on taking the said account, with interest and costs of the suit; or to a partition of the said property between the plaintiff and the defendant. Mr Francis, Q.C., instructed by Mr Wilkinson, was for the plaintiff, and Mr Drum. mond and Mr Phillippo, instructed by Messrs Ewens and Reess, for the defence. The following were the jury :- Mesers S. C. Michaelsen, G C. Anderson, R. Lyall,

W. H. Percival, A. Hancock, R. M. Moses and F. Dodwell, Mr Francis, said the question in the present case was one affecting the Ho Dunn :family and related to what had been known for a great many years as the Ho family property. Ho Taun Shui laboured for a c naiderable time in Hongkong as a missionary in connection with the London Missionary Society, and at his death in 1871 he left a very considerable property running in value pretty nearly into six figures, and the present inquiry was as to now he came by some of this, whether honestly or not. At the same time there was in the colony an uncle of Ho-Toun Shui, named Ho Tsun Sz. He was also connected with the London Missionary anciety. These two, uncle and nephow, in these early days, invested whatever money they had saved in the purchase of three THE HONGKUNG BANK MEETING marine lots in Jervois Street. These lots were 90 9d and 34s. The lots were not of any great value at that time and they were purchased for four or five hundred dollars each. They were purchased in the name of Ho Yeung, which was another name for Ho Tsun hui and was the name by which he would always be referred to in the case from this point. in 1854 these three lots were still standing in Ho Yueng's name; but at this time an alteration was made. Lot 34s was allowed to remain in the name of Ho Yeung, while 90 and 9d were transferred to the name of Ho Taui Mun. wished the jury to take partioular note of this name. It was alleged on the part of the defendant that this name was simply mother mans of Bo Yeung. No explanation was given as to why that change of the name was made. The plaintiff said that some differences had arisen between He Yeung and Ho Tsun Sz and an arrangement was made dividing the property and the plaintiff said that Ho Tsui Mun was a new name invented by the parties to represent their partnership or common interest and that there was an actual division of property made, Ho Yeung laking absolutely to himself lot 84s and a fourth share of the two houses remaining. Dr Chalmers and several other witnesses who knew extent. - Yours, Ho Young would tell the jury that they had never known him to use the name Ho Tsul Mun. heard these remarks I would have dealt with this impertinence as it deserved to be. It seems to be almost beyond belief that Mr Moses, holding the position he did of Chairman of an incorporation like the Hongkong Bank, was ignorant of the fact that the matter referred to concerned every shareholder slike, and that it rests with the body of shareholders to change or modify the Articles of Association for Dead of Settlement, as he called its when they deem it expedient to do so. In this trifling matter, the Chairman's lack of judgment was painfully manifest. It occurs to me it would be a matter courtesy, when the Chairman has such peculiar articulation of English, as Mi Moses has, that an interpreter should act for him on such occasions. In this case the seeming disconifort he was suffering from would have been avoided to some

THE TERRIBLE BAILWAY ACCIDENT Paris, July 27. - Many of the unfortanate people imprisoned beneath the wreck at St. Mando were drowned by the firemen, who turned torrents of water ou the burning cars, and seemed to be situally unaware that they were drowning the people they were attempting to rescue.

The majority of the victime werd women and children. The work of rescue proceeded slowly during the night until dawn. The people then began to flook to the scene by thousands, many seeking friends who had not returned from the fete by daybreak. There were 20,000 persons around the station, and the school-room and Town-Hall, where the bodies were lying, were besieged by distracted people. Inside there was a constant succession of heartrending scenes as the identification of charred and mangled bodies proceeded. Among the injured who were sent to the hospital a number died immediately after admission and many more are expected to succumb. Inquiry into the causes of the scoident shows that a second train left Vincennes at the regulation interval of five minutes after the first train. The latter train was delayed at St. Mande owing to the enormous crowd of excursionists. The station-master at Vincenues blames the driver of the second tesin for the accident. When this train was starting the station-master sixted the driver to go slowly, as there was a train in frent of him, but the man paid no heed to the advice and went shead at full speed. This driver at first alleged that all signals indicated the line to be clear, but laquiry confirms the report of officials at St. Mande and Vincennes that danger signals were shown. The driver now asserts his has been the victim of an act of revenge on the part of some one who out the pipes of the sir brakes, thus preventing them from bringing the train to a maintail. The official statement makes the number of dead forty-three and the injured 104. Among the victims are Marquis, and Marquise Montelerata. An artillery lieutenant climbed to the log of a burning carriage to rescue a girf but he fell with her into the burning mass and neither was seen again. It is reported that warrants
